KJC's: Are You Ready?

“Sowing the Seed”:

Just the thought of spending eternity in Heaven with Jesus is exciting. So I try to be alert for any opportunity to bring others to Christ. Therefore it is important to equip myself with as much information as possible to answer any questions which may arise. One of the tools I use for spreading the Good News was taught to me by a friend, John, in my Friday morning Bible Study. This method of evangelizing, often called “The Roman Road to Salvation”, is a series of Bible verses from the book of Romans, which guides the people involved from understanding that everyone is a sinner, that Christ died for us, that Jesus is Lord, that God raised Him from the dead, to the fact that all who believe in Him with their mouth and heart WILL BE SAVED. These verses are listed below. Read them, understand them, ask questions about them, memorize them, and share them with others, either directly through reading from God's Word or simply blending them in to a normal conversation.

To demonstrate the use of “The Roman Road to Salvation” I would like to tell you how I was blessed by sharing this use of the scriptures with a friend of mine. The conversation went something like the following.

- My friend: “.....well I really don't read the Bible, so I guess this makes me a “bad guy”
- Me: “.....no, it means nothing of the sort. Christianity and salvation have nothing to do with how much you know about the Christian faith or how much you do. Christianity is actually quite simple. As a true Christian you have to confess with your mouth that “Jesus is Lord”, and believe with your heart that God raised Him from the dead. If you do this, you will be saved (referring to Romans 10: 9,10).
- My friend: “...what does confess with your mouth mean?”
- Me: “Do you believe that Jesus is Lord?”
- My friend: “Yes.”
- Me: “Do you believe in your heart that God raised Jesus from the dead?”
- My Friend: “Absolutely.”
- Me: “As is written in Romans 10: 9,10 you will be saved.”

I urge Christian to be prepared to bring others to Christ at every opportunity. The Holy Spirit is always present to guide us, as well as help us, bring non-believers or those seeking Christ into His Kingdom. Please take a few minutes to read the life-saving scripture links provided below for the “Roman Road to Salvation”.
